ICD Loni over the years and congratulated all employees for being a part of continued endeavor to excel and achieve progress. "It is great to hear that ICD Loni has been winning 'ICD of the Year' award for past 4 years in a row and I see it as more of a responsibility rather than a reason for pride. These awards are evidence that the EXIM trade has put in their trust in us and made us the number one PPP model ICD of the country and thus it is incumbent upon us to keep endeavoring towards excellence and keep trying to achieve more milestones in times to come.", he stated.

On the occasion of Independence Day, he announced that starting this year WWIL-

CMD, awards distribution ceremony took place where all the children who participated in the painting competition were rewarded with gifts and also the employees of WWILPL who performed exceptionally in the year 2013-14 were presented with certificate and gifts.

Group Mentor Sh. Mahesh Goyal then addressed the audience and emphasized on the hard work and team work for the continual progress of the Group. He expressed that ICD Loni has come a long way in establishing itself as one of the prime ICDs of the country and while we all are proud to have the honor; we must thrive to do even better and keep on excelling.

Sh. Piyoosh Goyal addressing the audience at new WWILPL ICD Loni.

He further stated that one of the unique things at ICD Loni is that all employees are considered a part of the family and not as workers. The hoisting of tricolor at one yard was done by an employee and at the other yard it was done by CMD which is evident of this fact.

Sh. Atul Sharma, Sr. General Manager, WWILPL, extended the vote of thanks to all the dignitaries, visitors, employees for attending this event and to all employees who have worked hard to make this event a grand success.

The celebrations continued with formal "Ribbon Cutting Ceremony" of the newly constructed Admin Building at WWILPL ICD jointly by Sh. Piyoosh Goyal and Sh. Kartik
